Heinrich Homann, deputy chairman of the NDRD, has confirmed the intention of the Polish government to organize a Pan-European conference in Warsaw. This conference was, allegedly, suggested by Molotov. The possibility of such a conference had recently been discussed at meetings of functionaries of the LDP and CDU. Circles in [redacted] Yugoslavia had, allegedly, given a favorable response to the plan of holding a Pan-European conference in the Polish capital. East German representatives were also scheduled to attend.
